

MINNEHAHA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A Reconciling Congregation
WE SEEK, WE SERVE, WE CELEBRATE

September 5, 2021

Welcome Friends!

We welcome you to worship wherever you may be in your faith's journey. We strive to live in the way of Jesus Christ, sharing God's love on a daily basis regardless of race, sexual orientation or faith history.

We livestream our worship services, and you may end up in view of the camera at any point in the service.

We ask you to refrain from playing on the playground during worship; you are welcome to use it after worship (as long as you are small enough to fit on the equipment!)

 Please rise in body or spirit

Greeting

*Call to Worship

(adapted from Flames of the Spirit, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

Leader: God has been acting in our lives and in the world around us this past week.

People: We have come for this time of worship to make ourselves more aware of God and to give thanks for God's presence with us.

Leader: God is here even now, ready to strengthen us and to urge us to greater faithfulness.

People: Fill us with your goodness, O God. Draw us into the orbit of your activity in the world that we might fulfill the purpose for which you created us. Amen.

Morning Has Broken

The United Methodist Hymnal #145

Morning has broken like the first morning,
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from Heaven,
Like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning,
Born of the one light Eden saw play.
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God's re-creation of the new day!

Morning has broken like the first morning,
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sharing of Joys & Concerns

Morning Prayer

(adapted from Flames of the Spirit, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

O God, our God, we celebrate the new life which you have given us. We have experienced broken lives made whole, old wounds of alienation healed over, and tired spirits rejuvenated with new vision. Gracious God, we are so grateful for the purpose and possibilities you have placed before us. Yet there are times when doubt has overcome hope, cynicism has replaced dedication, the world's values have captured us more than yours. Forgive us those times, we pray. Help us let go of the past that we might move joyfully into a new future that points to your love and justice. Amen.

Silent Prayers

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kin-dom* come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive
those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kin-dom and the power
and the glory forever. Amen.

Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.*

The Faith We Sing #2175

Together We Serve

Together we serve, united by love,
inviting God's world to the glorious feast.
We work and we pray through sorrow and joy,
extending your love to the last and the least.

We seek to become a beacon of hope,
a lamp for the heart and a light for the feet.
We learn, year by year, to let love shine through until we see Christ in each person we meet.

We welcome the scarred, the wealthy, the poor,
the busy, the lonely, and all who need care.
We offer a home to those who will come,
our hands quick to help, our hearts ready to dare.

Together, by grace, we witness and work,
remembering Jesus, in whom we grow strong.
Together we serve in Spirit and truth,
remembering love is the strength of our song.

Prayer of Dedication

Because you call us to visit those in need, we bring these offerings to serve you where we cannot go. May we reach out to all impoverished spirits with renewed understanding and practical help. We dedicate ourselves with these material tokens, that we may become doers of the word and not hearers only. Amen.

Announcements

We are delighted you are here! And, to minimize the handing around of things, we invite you to “sign the welcome pad” electronically. If you point your camera phone at the QR code below, it will take you to a google form where you can enter your information. If you don’t have a camera phone, there are sign in sheets at the tables where you found bulletins.

For our offering, there are buckets for your cash or check offerings on the tables where you picked up your bulletin. You can also give electronically with the Give Plus app, through the PayPal account online, or by using this QR Code (which takes you to our PayPal account).

Help! Yes, Help with the Rummage Sale! Bring your rummage (not clothes or large furniture items; all in working condition) to church on Sunday, Aug. 29 or Sept. 5 as we have nowhere to store things before that. Help price and prepare on Sept. 6, 7, 8 and help sell on Sept. 9, 10, and 11. Please let Maureen Trepp or Kim Kanuit know you are helping!!

Worship in September: Worship in September will look a lot like it does now! We will continue with one worship service, outside, at 10:00. If it is raining, then we will move inside to the sanctuary and ask that you wear a mask. Our goal is to return to 2 worship services in October, but stay tuned!

Masks required inside: We are amending our mask policy by requiring everyone to wear masks in our common areas in the building (this includes the sanctuary, narthex, fellowship hall, kitchen, bathrooms, etc.). Small groups that are meeting behind closed doors may still choose to make masks optional for the duration of their gathering.

Adult Zoom Class on Beliefs: This fall, there will be a class held on zoom on Monday nights that explores what we do, and don't, believe. Based on the book What's the Least I Can Believe and Still Be a Christian by Martin Thielen, we'll spend 5 weeks looking at the things we don't believe, and 5 weeks looking at things we do believe, with a final week to wrap it all up. Classes start on Sept. 13 and end on November 29. If you are interested, please buy the book and read chapters 1 & 2 prior to Sept. 13. Please also contact Becky for the zoom link to the class.

Adult in Person Class on Rules: We are spending a lot of time in our country determining, debating, and defying the various rules that help us be community. In the midst of this national conversation (confrontation), you are invited to take a step back in time and study the rules that guided the early Hebrew community. We'll gather on Tuesday afternoons at 2:00 from September 14 through October 12 in person at the church, and there will also be an online option. If you are interested in joining through zoom, please let Becky know prior to September 14 so she can get the technology set up appropriately. The first class will be introductory, with your reading assignments for each week coming after that.
