Minnehaha Children, Youth, and Family Ministries

Happy October! As autumn settled in around us, we're happy to have settled into a new program year at Minnehaha. Many thanks to all those families who have helped us get classrooms and spaces ready, to all those who have volunteered as teachers and helpers, to all those who help make Minnehaha a welcoming place for people of all ages.

We hope you'll join us in opportunities this fall to connect with one another, both in peer focused activities (like our Young Families Dinner, Balanced Media Presentation for Third-Sixth Graders, or Youth Bonfire) and in our intergenerational experiences (like the Halloween Party and Harvest Dinner).

If you're looking for a service opportunity as a family, consider coming to Minneharvest on Saturday, October 27th (and all 4th Saturdays). You can come early (7am!) to help unload the truck, or come at 9am to help hand out food.

And, if there's something you'd like to see happening at Minnehaha that isn't, know we are always open to new ideas. If you are interested in joining the Children's Council or Youth Council, these are our teams that plan and carry-out activities for Children (birth through fifth grade), Youth (6th-12th grade), and their families - we'd love to have you join us.

Please contact Jenia Strom if you have any questions or concerns (or want to join in planning!).

Again, thank you for all that you do for our Minnehaha community,

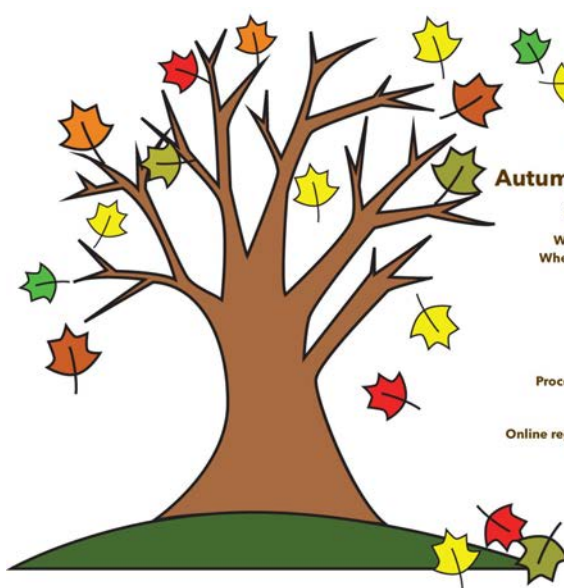

Jenia Strom

Calling all Parents of Children in grades 3-6
You are invited to join us for:
Balanced Screen Time: The Parent-Child Edition

The #1 question teachers are asked today is:
How much time is too much in front of a screen?!

Very, very closely followed by:

How do I get my child to happily look up from their screen every once in a while?!

Join us on at Minnehaha UMC on Wed., 24th October from 6-7pm to answer these very questions WITH your child!

Bring your 3rd-6th grader along for an hour of learning together!

- We'll learn the specific impacts of screens on your body + mind.
- We'll pinpoint the only effective way to actually combat + altogether avoid the risks of screen addiction.
- And we'll create a balanced screen time plan that works for your individual child and family – and that you'll both be over the moon for.

Each pair will leave with a balanced screen time plan in place, a Kindness Wins book + parent-child Kindness Wins contract with personalized directions so that your family can hit the ground running with all of the above.

Please register via this link: bit.ly/minnehahaparentchild

Time for Renewal - Taize

With all that is going on around us, it is important to slow down and make sure we are feeding our souls and listening for God periodically. Take an opportunity for renewal through prayer, song, and silence at our monthly Taize services. Join us on October 12 at 7:00 p.m., or any second Friday of the month.

Farewell for Mary Fairbairn

Our first service organist and choir director, Mary Fairbairn, is leaving us to take a job as organist at Normandale Hylands United Methodist Church. Her last Sunday with us will be on October 14. Mary has been a wonderful part of our staff, and has enlivened and deepened our worship life, and we are sorry to see her go. At the same time, we wish her well in this next adventure in her life.

Prayer Scarves for General Conference

As many of you are aware, our denomination's world-wide gathering will be in Minneapolis on May 5-15, 2020. In preparation, the churches in Minnesota would like to provide each of the delegates and attendees with a special prayer scarf. We will need ten thousand of these, so every congregation is invited to make as many as they can. If you are a knitter or a crocheter, here are the guidelines:

The yarn should be a solid royal purple (think Vikings or Prince), not lavender. Acrylic material, please, something that can be washed.

The pattern can be of your own choosing, but the finished product should be 6-7" wide and at least 60" long (we want people to be able to wrap these around their necks to stay warm in a drafty room). Sample patterns are available at www.minnesotaumc.org/lydiaproject

Each scarf should be placed in a 1 gallon ziploc bag, and we will collect them at the church (you can drop them outside Becky's office). They will also be brought to Annual Conference in June of 2019.

We will be given tags, and you are encouraged to take a tag for every scarf you make, put your name and our church on it, and attach it to the scarf with a piece of purple yarn.

I also encourage you to pray as you knit or crochet, in the spirit of a prayer scarf. You can pray for the person who will eventually receive the scarf, pray for the deliberations of the delegates during the 2020 General Conference, pray for our denomination and the decisions we make, and pray for the future of the church in general, that we might all be more attuned to where the Spirit of God is leading us.

Thank you!!

!First Friday Films

Do you find yourself shouting advice to characters during a movie? Nudging your neighbor with an elbow during critical scenes? Wishing you had someone to talk to about the movie you just watched? Then you are in luck!

Come to the church on the first Friday of the month at 7:00 and settle in to watch a movie with fellow Minnehaha -ians. Bring your own beverage and snacks, and feel free to bring a friend as well. After the credits roll, you'll have an opportunity to share your "aha" moments, the things you liked or disliked, or anything else the movie prompted in you.

Celtic Christianity Class

This summer eleven of us enjoyed the experience of a study group on Mary Magdalene and how the loss of her influence may have contributed to the male dominance of the institutionalized church. We each read different books over the course of six weeks and shared what we found with regard to specific questions. We followed leads that took us to France and England, learned about Black Madonnas, Cathars, Gnostics and Templars, and we shared our own doubts and possible heresies. If you see one of us in a Heretic tee shirt, ask us the reason we are wearing it. Several of us are reading the New Testament and we have decided to pursue another group looking at Celtic Christianity. One reason for this is that women remained as leaders much longer in the Celtic church.

Newcomer Classes

We'll be holding an introduction and orientation class for anyone new to Minnehaha or interested in joining on October 3. Please join us during the Wednesday night dinner at 5:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Your meal is on us, and we'll have a table set aside for the class. If you want to stay for children & youth programming at 6:15 or choir at 6:45, we would be delighted! Just to give us an idea of numbers, please RSVP to becky@minnehaha.org. If you are interested, but cannot make the class, please let us know that as well so we can plan another class at a time that works for you.

Highlights of Paul's Journey Cruise

You are invited to join our Bishop, Bruce Ough, and his wife, Char on a 10-day spiritual pilgrimage to visit the lands and places that were integral to the life and teachings of Paul. The journey will be aboard a smaller cruise ship (can accommodate 690 people), and will take place October 18-27, 2019. For more details, there is a flyer at the back of the sanctuary, or you can also find details at the website of Minnesota

"The Great Society" Theatre Outing

Thanks to Sue Claude, 30 tickets are available for "The Great Society" at the History Theatre - for the matinee performance on Sunday, 14 October at 2:00 pm. This play is the sequel to "All The Way" - the story of the first year of Lydon B. Johnson's presidency and the passing of the Civil Rights bill. Most of the cast from last year's production will be returning for this sequel including Pearce Bunting as LBJ, Shawn Hamilton as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Andrew Wheeler as Hubert H. Humphrey and Minnehaha UMC's own Jefferson Slinkard in multiple roles.

If interested - contact Sue right away. Tickets will be available on a first come/first serve basis. Sue is planning to organize a lunch at Sawadtee Thai.

Oct 6-28, 2018—Powerful Sequel to the Tony-Award-Winning All The Way

by Robert Schenkkan; directed by Ron Peluso

1965. 1966. 1967. 1968. LBJ has just been elected to a second term. Dr. King's "March on Selma" is at the forefront as LBJ battles to pass historic legislation on health care, education, poverty — and then, there's the growing specter of Vietnam as the election of 1968 grows near with Bobby Kennedy, Gene McCarthy, HHH and Richard Milhous Nixon all making a run for the White House. The Great Society depicts the larger-than-life LBJ's tragic fall from grace, as his accomplishments are overshadowed by the bitter failure of Vietnam.

Introducing A.P. Hopper

A.P. Hopper has graciously agreed to substitute for us as our organist and choir director until we can find a permanent replacement for Mary Fairbairn. Her first Sunday with us will be October 21. Here is a little bit from A.P. about herself:

I grew up in South Milwaukee, WI in a Polish Catholic community and attended the parish grade school. I began piano studies when I was in first or second grade and took lessons through and after college. I began organ studies in eighth grade at De Sales Prep High School and continued into college, where I attended De Sales College and Alverno College, graduating with a double major in Theology and Music.

My "career" in music ministry began when, as a sophomore in high school, my pastor at my home parish called and told me that starting the following Sunday I was going to be the next parish organist! I began directing two choirs the following fall and I've been at it ever since, for the last 52 years. I sing with One Voice Mixed Chorus, and served as the bass section leader for 14 years and as the assistant director from 2006-2008. I was also the accompanist and associate music director of Calliope Women's Chorus from 2011-2016, have most recently served as liturgical accompanist at Saron Lutheran Church in Big Lake, MN for the last 4 years, and currently accompany a small (but quite talented) liturgical choir on some Saturday afternoons at St. Frances Cabrini Church in the Prospect Park neighborhood.

There isn't enough space to tell you about my wonderful bride, Cyndi, and our children, and grandchildren, so you'll just have to ask me about them!

I have worn many hats as a music minister, but I have been told that my greatest talent (and my passion) lies in choral directing. I look forward to ministry with the choir and I have an invitation for you:

PLEASE COME JOIN US!!!

Communion at Nokomis Square

A brief service of communion is offered at Nokomis Square on the second Thursday of this month. All are welcome to join us on October 11 at 1:00 p.m. Before communion, we'll have a brief discussion about the debate on whether denominations like the Jehovah's Witnesses, Christian Scientists, Mormons, and Seventh Day Adventists are Christian.

Please join us this month on Saturday, October 27. You can volunteer anytime between 7:00 and 10:30 a.m. We unload the trucks starting at 7, serve the food at 9:00, and are usually done cleaning up by 10:30. Join us, and bring a friend!

Generations

When I talk with my clergy colleagues, I realize how lucky we are here at Minnehaha. And, really, how lucky I am. When I mention that we've had a lot of funerals this year, and that we have 19 people who are 90 or older, some of my colleagues tell me that they rarely do funerals, and that they don't even have 19 people over the age of 60 in their congregation. When I talk about the 10 babies we've welcomed just in the last 6 months, other colleagues tell me how they are excited if they do one infant baptism a year, and that even most of those are grandchildren of their members who probably won't be active in the church beyond the baptism.

We have a fairly even representation across the decades at Minnehaha. A little more in the middle, and a little less at the end (as you would expect), but in general, we have people in all walks of life. We have those who are newly married, those finding love for the second or third or fourth time, those who are single by choice and by circumstance. We have households filled with the noise of children and households that love the quiet and simplicity of living alone. There are plenty of us who are satisfied with where we are in life, and we also have plenty of us who wish we were at some other stage. Some houses are too quiet, and some are too noisy. But together, we are a community. Those who are young get to experience the lives of those who are older. And, those who are older get to hear about what life is like for the young. Sometimes we are envious of the lives others lead, and sometimes we are grateful that we are where we are in life. And that is the wonderful thing about a multi-generational community! Whether you fall in the envious category or the grateful category, offer a prayer of thanks that you are part of a community that lets you experience all generations. And reach out to someone who is older than you are, and to someone who is younger than you are. It is amazing how we can see God not only in our own experiences, but also through the lived lives of others.

In Joy,

Becky
