Worship in September

September starts off at the very beginning of the month with one worship service inside at 10:00. We then have our annual kick-off to the program year with one service at 10:00, outside, with a picnic and bike parade following. Sept. 15 begins the regular program year, with both services inside, at 9:00 and 11:00. That will also be the beginning of our fall theme of Biblical Characters. Each week, we'll explore the lives of a character (or characters) from the Bible like Abraham & Sarah, Rahab, and the Roman centurion. In addition, we invite you to sign up to be part of a Minnehaha Connection Gathering that will also get to talk about these characters in a little more depth and connect their stories to our current lives. Sept. 29 will be a celebration of our youth that just finished confirmation – Chloe Kennedy-Abdella, Betsy Kirkpatrick, and Amin Noujdi. See you in worship!

1st	“Rules of Etiquette”	Luke 14:1, 7-14 Communion, One service inside at 10:00

One my first day of first grade, Mrs. Grinstad gave me a name tag with a ladybug on it. This let me know I was to sit at the ladybug table, so designated by the stuffed ladybug which hung above it. The other kids at the ladybug table and I settled in to the school year together, and the ladybug table and its students served as a home base, a safe place to return to. We were a team.

As students around our community settle into a new school year - boarding buses, finding desks and lockers, greeted by teachers and old friends, meeting new friends - they need safe places, teams to face the year with. Some of them will find those at school, some at home. And, Minnehaha can be that place too, in fact, we strive to make Minnehaha such a place: a place where people feel safe and accepted, a place where people have a team that supports them and that they can turn to in need. Of course, like the ladybug table in Mrs. Grinstad's room, Minnehaha shouldn't only be a home base for a team, but also a place of learning and creativity, a place where people are free to ask questions and discover and grow.

When I started college, Mrs. Grinstad gave me that ladybug as a going-away gift, and when I taught, it hung in my classroom. It's always served as a reminder of the importance of having a safe place - a community - to ask questions and to make mistakes and to grow. It also reminds me of the power an individual, like Mrs. Grinstad (the first Minnesotan I remember meeting, by the way) in creating such a space. I look forward to this program year, and to the opportunity to work with all of you to continue to help Minnehaha be a place where each of us feels safe to be ourselves, and to grow!

Welcome to the 2019-2020 Program Year!

Our free food give-away once a month (on the fourth Saturday of the month) is a source of food relied upon by many, and it happens through volunteers who come each month. Please join us on Sept. 28. You can volunteer anytime between 6:30 and 10:30 a.m. We start setting up at 6:30, unload the trucks starting at 7, serve the food at 9:00, and are usually done cleaning up by 10:30. Join us for all or any portion of that time, and bring a friend! Unless it is raining, we unload and distribute food outside at the front of the church during the summer, and there is generally a lot of great produce!

Minnehaha Family Camping Trip

Join a Minnehaha Connection Gathering this Fall

We are trying a new thing this year! Instead of our two Bible discussion groups on Monday evening and Thursday morning, a variety of people have volunteered to lead groups twice a month throughout the program year. Our goal is to have everyone attend a group. The topics for discussion will be based on the theme from the previous Sunday's service, and the groups will meet at a variety of times and in a variety of locations. Although there is a discussion topic, we encourage each group to connect with each other and share their lives with one another throughout. Sign up sheets are available at church, but you can also email Becky Sechrist at becky@minnehaha.org and ask her to add your name to one of the following groups:

Phyllis Kromer, facilitator
Her apartment, #201, at Becketwood
1st and 3rd Mondays at 3:30 p.m. – starting on Sept. 16

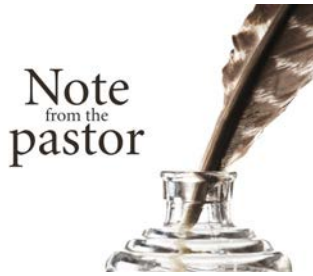

Judy Durfey, facilitator
at the church, Room 210
1st & 3rd Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. – starting on Sept. 18

Cec Wilson Holder, facilitator

Valerie Mayer, facilitator her home, 7105 18th Ave. S, Richfield
1st & 3rd Mondays at 6:00 p.m. – starting on Sept. 16

At the church
1st & 3rd Wednesdays at 6:15, following the Wednesday night suppers – starting Sept. 18

Connections

I am enrolled in school again. It's a program offered out of Dakota Wesleyan University in SD, called Non-Profit and Church Leadership. By July of next year, if I pass, I'll have a certificate in that program and 2/3 of an MBA. It's a mainly online program, but there are a group of us taking it together. We are all United Methodist clergy, and we are all serving churches in Minnesota, North Dakota, or South Dakota. Except for one guy. His clergy membership is in the Dakotas, but he is serving a church in Anchorage, AK. When we do our video lectures, he is sitting out on his deck, with his web camera facing out into the Alaskan countryside. I'm envious now, but I'm sure in January I'll feel differently!

So far, I'm learning new and different things (which is why I am enrolled in the program), but an added bonus is that I am learning those things in the company of others. Our congregational settings are quite varied, but we are all coming from the perspective of pastors. We discuss together what it's like to work with staff, with volunteers, with the denomination. We share ideas with one another about how our committees are structured, programs we've tried that worked, and programs we tried that didn't work. We ask questions of one another (which range from "how are you feeling about that?" to "have you talked to your lay leadership about that issue?"), we offer advice, and we commiserate. In short, the program is that much greater because of the participation of colleagues. As we started the program, the first "test" group was finishing their program. Watching the connections they had made with one another over the year was inspiring. I am looking forward to getting to know 20 more people a little bit better, I'm looking forward to hearing more about their contexts, learning from them, and being part of a larger connection.

You don't have to sign up for a program to do this. We, each of us, are part of a community already, and there is so much we gain by being part of a larger group. Although we are varied from one another, we can offer insight, support, and feedback. You don't have to have a web camera or an online discussion board (although you can utilize those tools if you want), all you have to do is participate. So, spend this year making more connections at Minnehaha. Sit by someone in worship you don't know as well. Engage in a conversation at coffee hour. Sign up for one of the Connection Gatherings. Visit a homebound member. The possibilities are endless. And, I assure you that in a year's time, you'll have something much more valuable than a certificate!

In Joy,

Becky
