

MINNEHAHA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A Reconciling Congregation
WE SEEK, WE SERVE, WE CELEBRATE

September 27, 2020

Welcome Friends!

The Minnehaha church family is happy to welcome today's guests, wherever you may be in your personal faith journey. We strive to live in the way of Jesus Christ, sharing God's love on a daily basis regardless of race, sexual orientation or faith history. We livestream our worship services, and you may end up in view of the camera at any point in the service.

Greeting and Calling into Worship

Sharing of Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer

(adapted from Flames of the Spirit, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

God of creation's beauty and power, Creator of all things in the farthest reaches of time and space, we praise you. Jesus Christ, who had power on earth to calm the seas, the winds, and the human spirit, we worship you. Holy Spirit, source of new creation in our souls, we open ourselves to you. May our amazement at your creative power move us to live on this earth as your true children. Amen.

Silent Prayers

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kin-dom* come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Congregational Hymn

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty

The United Methodist Hymnal

Words: Reginald Heber (1826) Music: John B. Dykes (1861)

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee.
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity.

Scripture Lesson

Psalm 78:1-4

Congregational Response:

We give thanks for all that God has already given you and we welcome you in Christian love. As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of Minnehaha United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service and our witness, for the transformation of the world in God's name.

Statements of Faith

We asked the youth being confirmed to write an affirmation of their faith at the conclusion of their class. We asked them each to write statements each about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, the Bible, the church, and what they believe God calls them to. They have graciously allowed us to share their statement with all of you.

I believe God cares for me and the world and that God created the whole world.

I believe Jesus is powerful. He does incredible things like heal people. I believe Jesus sacrificed his life so we all can live.

I believe the Holy Spirit is a spirit and is a part of God.

I believe the Bible teaches me how life was before Christ, tells us about Jesus and his death, and teaches us how to live life.

I believe church is a place to meet people to talk about the Spirit, is a place to learn, and is a place where people care about me.

I believe God calls me to be a cheerful helper, to be polite with manners, and that God calls me to trust Him.

-- Cooper Cronquist

I believe God is love, is faithful, and is my protection.

I believe Jesus is a forgiver, a guardian, and my strength.

I believe the Holy Spirit is all around us, peace, my comforter.

I believe the Bible is stability, is my guide for life, and is my helper.

I believe the church is welcoming to all, not a building, but a people coming together, and is acts of service, not always going to a service.

I believe I am called to forgive, and to love everyone for who they are.

-- Ava Erickson

I believe God is always there, is in control, and is kind to all.

I believe Jesus is extraordinary, a leader, and is independent.

I believe the Holy Spirit is a force, a guidance to God, and helps us better understand the relationships in the Bible.

I believe the Bible teaches me how to make mistakes and learn from them, to care for everyone, and that people aren't perfect and that is ok.

I believe the church is a community, a safe spot for people to open up, and a place to listen to people's story.

I believe I am called to help people in need, to communicate with others, and to learn to be kind to myself.

-- Paige Gruenhagen

I believe God is something greater than human beings, the good and love in people, and a way to guide morals and a way to learn to be a good person.

I believe Jesus is someone to learn from about how to love others, a good example of a human trying to do what God calls them to do, and a teacher.

I believe the Holy Spirit is the feeling of being close to God, the love that everyone feels when they are doing good in the world, and a way to feel God on earth.

I believe the Bible teaches us how to love our neighbor, what it means to be a good person as a Christian, and is sometimes wrong, so should be used to focus on big messages of love.

I believe the church is a place of love, somewhere that all people are accepted, and where you can learn and practice faith in a caring environment.

I believe God calls me to do what I can to make the world a better place, to love and spread love, and to help others and be generous.

-- Libby Kramer

I believe God is Creator, Father, and Lord.

I believe Jesus is holy, a peacemaker, and the Son of God.

I believe the Holy Spirit is part of the trinity, and the presence of God.

I believe the Bible is the holy word of God, and that it teaches me how to follow Jesus.

I believe the Bible is a place of worship, and is for all people who follow Jesus.

I believe God calls me to be kind to all living things.

Sound and Video help. We could use some more people to help make up a team of folks who do sound and who do our recording and livestreaming. Jefferson Slinkard is our new sound tech, and he would love to train in another group of people who could do sound for Sunday morning, for weddings, funerals, or any other random occasion that comes up. If you are interested, you can talk to Becky or to Jefferson. Our new sound board has lots of cool bells and whistles -- and lots of new programmable settings!

And, we need a group of people who are interested in running our cameras. This is a growing need for us, as we are getting requests for more and more things to be recorded and then posted or livestreamed directly. Our camera operators might record a Sunday morning service, a small baptism, our Taizé service, the possibilities are growing. Jim Bohl is our livestreaming coordinator, and he would love to train a team of people to help out with our variety of needs. If you are interested, contact Becky or Jim.

#30DaysAntiRacism

The United Methodist Church invites us all to join together in September for 30 days of anti-racism. Each day we will engage in an activity that helps us to become more anti-racist in the ways we think and act. Share your progress with a picture or a reflection using #30DaysAntiRacism.
