The Easter Song

Welcome

*Call to Worship

Calvin Emrick

Dear God, this past week has been one of mixed emotions; of faith struggling to understand. We have greeted you with palm branches; we have sat at the table with you to share a farewell meal. We have witnessed your death on a simple wooden cross. Yet on this third day, you come to us again in victory. By this, we know that death is not the final word. As the sun boldly rises to meet a new day, rise in our lives this Easter morning, for you are our hope, our life and our joy. Amen.

*Opening Song

Weave Me the Sunshine

©1972 Peter Yarrow; Mary Beth Music (ASCAP)

Chorus:

Weave, weave, weave me the sunshine out of the falling rain,
Weave me the hope of a new tomorrow, fill my cup again.

They say that the tree of loving,
Shine on me again.

They say it grows on the bank of the river suffering,
Shine on me again

Chorus

Oh, if only I could heal your sorrow,
Shine on me again.

Then I'd help you to find your new tomorrow,
Shine on me again.

Chorus

Only you can climb that mountain,
Shine on me again.

If you want to drink from the golden fountain,
Shine on me again.

Chorus

Well, I've seen the steel and the concrete crumble,
Shine on me again.

The proud and the mighty, they all have stumbled,
Shine on me again.

Chorus

Morning Prayer

Hazel Retherford

O God, we confess our lack of faith. Although we have called you the God of hope, we often feel lost, cynical, without hope. The world is so full of big nails and little nails-people are put on so many different kinds of crosses in so many different places that we wonder if there can ever be enough resurrections. We are reluctant to leave the tomb of our own ignorance and fear to claim the promise.

We confess that our weakness and insensitivities stand in the way of new life in our world. We know that the world is full of suffering. Our brothers and sisters are nailed to crosses of poverty and injustice. People close enough to touch are sealed in tombs of loneliness and despair. But we have failed to halt the crucifixion, to roll away the stone. Amen.

Silent Prayer

Siri Strom

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kin-dom^{*} come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive
those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kin-dom and the power
and the glory forever. Amen.

^{*}Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Scripture Readings

Elisa Emrick and Michael Talcott

Matthew 28:1-8

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it.

His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.

The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay.

Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples.

Psalms 118:1-4, 22-26

Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good;
God's love endures forever.

Let Israel say:

"God's love endures forever."

Let the house of Aaron say:
 " God's love endures forever."
 Let those who fear the Lord say:
 " God's love endures forever."
 The stone the builders rejected
 has become the cornerstone;
 the Lord has done this
 and it is marvelous in our eyes.
 The Lord has done it this very day;
 let us rejoice today and be glad.
 Lord, save us!
 Lord, grant us success!
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 From the house of the Lord we bless you.

Prayer of Dedication

Annie Strom

Mighty God of Resurrection and Redemption, we offer our gifts alongside our alleluias! We offer our hands and feet and voices to take the celebration out of this place into a world that needs hope so desperately! May we go into the world with such energy, excitement, and power that the ground shakes once again, that lightning flashes, and that people see in us your redeeming love and the triumph of light over darkness! In the name of the risen Christ, we pray. Amen.

Let It Be

©1970 John Lennon, Paul McCartney (PRS) Sony/ATV Tunes (ASCAP)

When I find myself in times of trouble Mother Mary come to me
 Speaking words of wisdom, let it be.
 And in my hour of darkness she is standing right in front of me
 Speaking words of wisdom, let it be.
 Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
 Whisper words of wisdom, let it be.

And when the broken hearted people in the world agree,
 There will be an answer, let it be.
 For though they may be parted there is still a chance that they will see,
 There will be an answer, let it be.
 Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
 Whisper words of wisdom, let it be.

And when the night is cloudy there is still a light that shines on me,
Shine until tomorrow, let it be.
I wake up to the sound of music, Mother Mary comes to me
Speaking words of wisdom, let it be.
Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
There will be an answer, let it be.
Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
Whisper words of wisdom, let it be.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

Sunday, May 4
during 9:30am Worship

Way, way back in 1968, Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Weber were commissioned by Colet Court School to write a short musical for the whole school to perform. It was their first collaboration, and a 22 minute version of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat was the result.

Parents loved it, and demanded a repeat performance where they could invite more guests, and so folks were invited to Methodist Central Hall at Westminster. By 1973, this musical had been developed into the full length musical that many of us are familiar with today.

On Sunday, May 4, in the Minnehaha United Methodist Central Hall (aka the Sanctuary) we will present to you the original 22 minute version of Joseph as a part of our worship service. There's wonderful, upbeat music, a dazzling coat of many colors, a hairy bunch of Ishmaelites, talented Minnehaha youth and children and adults, and a message of forgiveness and persistence and dreaming. We hope to see you there!
