RESTAURANTS

Soul Bowl (<https://www.soulbowlmn.com/>)

Trio Plant Based (<https://www.trioplant-based.com/full-menu>)

Trio Plant-based became the first Black-owned vegan restaurant in Minneapolis, Minnesota. I have ordered from here multiple times and it's great. Recommended by Kip

Pimento Kitchen (<https://pimentokitchen.square.site/>)

Incredibly good. I have only been a couple of times and can't wait to go back. I'm craving this as I type! Recommended by Kip and Jenny

Angela's Soul Food Kitchen (<https://www.angeleassoulfoodkitchen.com/>)

Hola Arepa <https://www.holaarepa.com/>

3501 Nicollet Avenue, Minneapolis 55408

Chef and co-owner Christina Nguyen serves boldly-spiced Latin-inspired street food, including Venezuelan-style stuffed arepas and Latin American-influenced small plates. This small restaurant in South Minneapolis is often busy, and it never disappoints. Most of the items on the menu are naturally gluten-free. Recommended by Jenny

What started in the Global Market as a food stand over 10 years ago has evolved as a very fine traditional Mexican/ Argentinian restaurant with outdoor seating, great drinks and a vast menu including elote, ceviche, Argentinian empanadas, seafood and excellent eggplant fries. To go orders available. Recommended by Maureen

Du Nord Craft Social Spirits Distillery

2610 32nd Street East, Minneapolis 55406

Du Nord is the first Black-owned distillery in the nation. Besides distilling a variety of liquors available at local stores and sold to Delta Airlines, there is a fun Cocktail Room open on the site from 4:00-midnight. Food is not served, but you are welcome to bring your own and there's sometimes a food truck nearby. Recommended by Maureen
