Sharing Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer (adapted from Touch Holiness, by Ruth C. Duck & Maren C. Tirabassi)*

Resurrected Savior, Savior of new life happening in the earth all around us, and of new hope, which we desperately need, we come to you in humble prayer. This pandemic has changed our lives, but Easter had already changed our lives. We might be frightened in the moment, but because you live, we also have the courage to face both life and death. We are acutely aware of how lonely it is to be alone, separated, but because you live, we know that we are still your people, all of us, and we find creative ways to continue to be community together. We feel deeply what it is like to worship in scattered places, but because you live, we also come together in worship in new ways. We yearn for an end to what seems like a very long Lent, even though we are living in Easter. Hear our hearts' yearnings, and gather us together in your heart, helping each of us to witness to the hope and joy and eternity that is in you. Amen.

Lord's Prayer (inclusive)

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Congregational Hymn #89 – Anders Nelson & Congregation Voices

“Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee,” Ludwig van Beethoven/Henry Van Dyke
Public Domain Music and Words

Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away.
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day!

All they works with joy surround thee, earth and heaven reflect thy rays, stars and angels sing around thee, center of unbroken praise.
Fields and forest, vale and mountain, flowered meadow, flashing seas, chanting bird and flowing fountain, call us to rejoice in thee.

Thou art giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blest, well-spring of the joy of living, ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Creator, Christ our brother, all who live in love are thine;
teach us how to love each other, lift us to the joy divine.

Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began;
love divine is reigning o'er us, binding all within its span.
Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife, joyful music leads us sunward, in the triumph song of life.

“Like the Sun,” Lily Kershaw

Don't hold me like I'm going
Don't look at me like I'm gone
'Cause when it all comes down to it
We're all going like the sun

There is no time to ask for mercy
She left ages anyhow
And when it all comes down to it
In this silly world and its crazy fit of life
We're all going somehow

And you say you believe in nothing
I know something believes in you
But still you rise up every morning
Like the sun isn't going to

And when it all comes down to it
We're all going like the sun

And when it all comes down to it
In this silly life its crazy fit

And you say you believe in nothing
I know something believes in you
But still you rise up every morning
Like the sun isn't going to

And when it all comes down to it
We're all going like the sun
