Sharing Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer (adapted from Bread for the Journey, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

O God of life, there is much that deals in doubt and despair and death in our world, and we are often tempted to succumb to these forces. Help us always to choose life; to affirm what can be affirmed, to hope where hope is possible, and to risk ourselves to lift up human dignity. For we pray in the name of Christ. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

Lord’s Prayer (inclusive)

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Children’s Message – Jenia Strom

Passing the Peace – Becky Sechrist

Congregational Hymn #178: “Hope of the World” (vv. 1-3, 5)

– Anders Nelson & Congregation Voices

Hope of the world, thou Christ of great compassion, speak to our fearful hearts by conflict rent.
Save us, thy people, from consuming passion,
who by our own false hopes and aims are spent.

Hope of the world, God’s gift from highest heaven,
bringing to hungry souls the bread of life,
still let thy spirit unto us be given,
to heal earth’s wounds and end all bitter strife.

Hope of the world, afoot on dusty highways,
showing to wandering souls the path of light,
walk thou beside us lest the tempting byways lure us away from thee to endless night.

Hope of the world, O Christ o’er death victorious,
who by this sign didst conquer grief and pain,
we would be faithful to thy gospel glorious;
thou art our Lord! Thou dost forever reign.

Offertory – The Methodicals

Kacey Musgraves’ Rainbow is more like an encouraging letter than it is a song. Rainbow originally began as a note the singer was inspired to write for herself and was the final song Musgraves’ grandmother heard her write—one she loved so dearly, it was performed at her funeral. Now it’s transformed into a message of hope for anyone in the midst of dark times. Though the song started as a personal note of reassurance, Musgraves hopes it will serve as an anthem for those facing adversity, particularly in the LGBTQ community. “I feel a kinship and a friendship with that community. They really opened my eyes up to a lot of different things that I wasn't aware of growing up in a small town in Texas. I will always be an ally and a strong supporter,” Musgraves vows.

Announcements

Annual School Supply Drive

At this time no one knows what form school will take for the children we normally provide with school supplies. In spite of this uncertainty we will still be collecting supplies but will be targeting fewer children. Even if children are doing distance learning they will still need basic supplies to assist them. Thank you!

Special Offering

Each year, churches in the Minnesota Annual Conference take a Love Offering for missions in conjunction with the Annual Conference Session. The theme of the 2020 Annual Conference session—taking place virtually on Aug. 29—is “Be the Light, Live Hope!” The Love Offering provides the opportunity to be light and hope for those crying out for love, grace, compassion, and social and racial justice in their lives. Bishop Bruce R. Ough invites congregations to begin praying about and preparing to participate in the Love Offering as a miraculous expression of the abundant life we have in Christ Jesus, even in the midst of the coronavirus pandemic and social upheaval. The funds from this year’s offering will go to four projects: Simpson Housing Services (40 percent), Emma Norton Services (40 percent), Joyce Uptown Foodshelf (10 percent), and the Committee on Native American Ministry Diaper Drive (10 percent). If you wish to contribute to the Love Offering, please send a check to the office and put “Love Offering” in the memo line. You can also give through our Give Plus app.
