Come to the campfire, come to the campfire.
Come to the campfire and gather 'round with us.
Come to the campfire, come to the campfire.
Come to the campfire and gather 'round with us.

Welcome all cowpokes, welcome all cowpokes.
Welcome all cowpokes and rustle up some beans.
Welcome all cowpokes, welcome all cowpokes.
Welcome all cowpokes and rustle up some beans.

Come to the campfire, come to the campfire.
Come to the campfire and gather 'round with us.
Come to the campfire, come to the campfire.
Come to the campfire and gather 'round with us.

We are a family, we are a family.
We are a family, come gather 'round with us.
We are a family, we are a family.
We are a family, come sing along with us.

Come to the campfire, come to the campfire.
Come to the campfire, you belong with us.
Come to the campfire, come to the campfire.
Come to the campfire, you belong with us.

Morning Prayers

Community Prayer – Led by Cullan Fehr

Dear Jesus,
Your compassion always looked like courage.
Strengthen our hearts with your bravery
As we risk, reach out, and lift up
Our siblings near and far.
Help us keep our eyes on you.
Amen.

Sharing of Joys & Concerns and Pastoral Prayer – John Darlington

Lord's Prayer (Parker Palmer version) – Led by Annie Strom

Heavenly Father, heavenly Mother, Holy and blessed is your true name.
We pray for your reign of peace to come,
We pray that your good will be done,
Let heaven and earth become one.
Give us this day the bread we need,
Give it to those who have none.
Let forgiveness flow like a river between us,
From each one to each one.
Lead us to holy innocence beyond the evil of our days —
Come swiftly Mother, Father, come.
For yours is the power and the glory and the mercy:
Forever your name is All in One.

Congregational Song: “I Have Love to Share” – Julia Cook; Jenia, Eric, Annie & Siri Strom

I have love to share with the whole wide world,
and I start by loving myself.
When I take good care of my heart and soul
I have love for ev'ryone else.
I love me, so I can love you.
God loves me, so I can love you.

I like it when you sing
And all the notes agree
When the melody is certain
And the rhythm is a guarantee
But I love it when you let go
And howl at the moon
'Cuz sometimes the words sound better
When you sing 'em out of tune

I like it when you play
Right on key
I like it when you fill the space
With perfect harmony
But I love it when you honky-tonk
Like a piano in an old saloon
'Cuz sometimes the notes sound better
When you play 'em out of tune

I like it when you act
As if the world's a stage
And your character delivers
The soliloquies of a sage
But I love it when you go off script
And kiss the girl too soon
'Cuz sometimes the story's better
When you tell it out of tune ...
Sometimes life is better
When you live it out of tune

Learnin' from the Good Book – Jefferson Slinkard

Ephesians 4:2-6 (from The Message)

I want you to get out there and walk—better yet, run!—on the road God called you to travel. I don't want any of you sitting around on your hands. I don't want anyone strolling off, down some path that goes nowhere. And mark that you do this with humility and discipline—not in fits and starts, but steadily, pouring yourselves out for each other in acts of love, alert at noticing differences and quick at mending fences.

You were all called to travel on the same road and in the same direction, so stay together, both outwardly and inwardly. You have one Master, one faith, one baptism, one God and Creator of all, who rules over all, works through all, and is present in all. Everything you are and think and do is permeated with Oneness.

May we be filled with compassion.

May we be filled up to the top of our hearts.

When we have the pow’r to make something right, may we show God’s love.

May we be shown compassion.

May we be found in the center of peace.

When we have needs that others can meet, may we find God’s love.
