Call to Worship

Rev. Sara Spohr

One: Neighbors and newcomers, families and strangers,

All: we gather as a community created by God's steadfast love.

One: Strugglers and stragglers, pilgrims almost at the end of the journey,

All: each of us seeks to follow Jesus, the compassionate One.

One: Builders of bridges in fractured communities, those who stand on either side of walls of fear,

All: the Spirit of faithfulness calls us to live as one people – God's people!

Morning Prayer

Rev. Becky Sechrist

One: Holy God, we gather in the beauty of this place to worship you and enjoy kinship with one another. Meet us here, stir within and among us, that we may hear your word for us today. Move us from the comfort of complacency into the acts of compassion. Lift us from watchful weariness to the joys of community where your love knows no limits. Open us once again to the wideness of your mercy and the transforming power of your love.

All: Amen.

Readings

II Samuel 11:26-12:7a, 13

(Common English Bible)

Deacon Dorothy Sparks, Bread of Life Deaf Lutheran Church

26 When Uriah's wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband. 27 After the time of mourning was over, David sent for her and brought her back to his house. She became his wife and bore him a son.

But what David had done was evil in the LORD's eyes.

12 So the LORD sent Nathan to David. When Nathan arrived he said, "There were two men in the same city, one rich, one poor. 2 The rich man had a lot of sheep and cattle, 3 but the poor man had nothing—just one small ewe lamb that he had bought. He raised that lamb, and it grew up with him and his children. It would eat from his food and drink from his cup—even sleep in his arms! It was like a daughter to him.

4 "Now a traveler came to visit the rich man, but he wasn't willing to take anything from his own flock or herd to prepare for the guest who had arrived. Instead, he took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared it for the visitor."

5 David got very angry at the man, and he said to Nathan, "As surely as the LORD lives, the one who did this is demonic! 6 He must restore the ewe lamb seven times over because he did this and because he had no compassion."

7 "You are that man!" Nathan told David.

13 "I've sinned against the LORD!" David said to Nathan.

"The LORD has removed your sin," Nathan replied to David. "You won't die."

Song

Amazing Grace

to the tune of "The House of the Rising Sun"

Minnehaha Church Band "The Methodicals"

"Amazing Grace" text John Newton 1772

"The House of the Rising Sun" traditional, arr. The Methodicals

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear
the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we'd first begun.

Prayers of the People

Dr. Jen Kilps

One: Together, let us pray for ourselves, our congregations, our friends, our family, our world...
O God,

All: receive our prayer.

One: Those who suffer and those in trouble... O God,

All: receive our prayer.

One: The concerns of our community... O God,

All: receive our prayer.

One: Our nation and its leaders... O God,

All: receive our prayer.

One: Our world, its people, and its leaders... O God,

All: receive our prayer.

Prayer of Jesus

Deacon Dorothy Sparks, Bread of Life Deaf Lutheran Church

One: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

All: Amen.

Celebration of Communion

Rev. Brenda Froisland and Rev. Becky Sechrist

All are welcome to participate in communion.

One: The wideness of God's mercy, the range of God's forgiveness, the infinite love of God, the Heart of hope which is never empty: all these gifts are ours, as God restores us to the fullness of life meant for us.

All: Restored in love, transformed by grace, gifted with forgiveness, we joyfully offer ourselves in service to all. Thanks be to God. Amen.

One: We remember the way that Jesus showed us your great love for us.

He sought to bring hope, healing, liberation, and life, always and everywhere.

On the last night of his life, Jesus gathered around a table with his disciples, his friends.

Even knowing he had been betrayed, he still spoke words of life.

While he was at table with them, he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and offered it to them saying, "Take and it, this is my body broken for you."

After they had eaten, Jesus took the cup and offered it to them, saying, "Take and drink.

This is the cup of the new covenant poured out in my blood for the forgiveness of sins. As often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, do so in remembrance of me."

Loving God, we ask you to pour out your Holy Spirit on these your gifts. As we eat and drink, may we become more fully your body, the church the world needs today. Open our eyes that we may see you in ourselves, in one another, and in all whom we meet. In Jesus' name. Amen.

One: Come, all you who are loved by God,

Come, and be fed with the food that God freely gives;

Come, and quench your thirst from the Waters of Life;

Come, and let your spirits be filled again with the goodness of your Creator.

Prayer after Receiving

One: You have given yourself to us, O God.

All: Now we give ourselves for others.

One: Your love has made us a new people;

All: As a people of love we will serve you with joy.

One: Your glory has filled our hearts.

All: Help us to glorify you in all things. Amen.
