

MINNEHAHA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A Reconciling Congregation
WE SEEK, WE SERVE, WE CELEBRATE

August 15, 2021

Welcome Friends!

We welcome you to worship wherever you may be in your faith's journey. We strive to live in the way of Jesus Christ, sharing God's love on a daily basis regardless of race, sexual orientation or faith history.

We livestream our worship services, and you may end up in view of the camera at any point in the service.

We ask you to refrain from playing on the playground during worship; you are welcome to use it after worship (as long as you are small enough to fit on the equipment!)

Greeting

Call to Worship

(adapted from Bread for the Journey, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

Leader: We are gathered to give witness to the enduring realities of life.

People: We have come to affirm that life is a gift, that the gift is good, and that it comes from God.

Leader: We are gathered to renew our hope in Jesus Christ, as we travel life's long journey.

People: We find God in the paths of our present and our past, but we also trust in God's love in our future.

Leader: The same God guides us all the way, every day of our lives, and beyond life.

People: Let us praise God with our whole hearts, and entrust our lives to God's hands.

I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath

John Wesley (1737, alt. 1989) Isaac Watts (1719)
Reprinted with permission under CCL License No. 3175826. All rights reserved.

I'll praise my Maker while I've breath;
and when my voice is lost in death,
praise shall employ my nobler powers.
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
while life, and thought, and being last,
or immortality endures.

Happy are they whose hopes rely on Israel's God, who made the sky and earth and seas, with all their train;
whose truth for ever stands secure,
who saves th'oppressed and feeds the poor,
for none shall find God's promise vain.

The Lord pours eyesight on the blind;
the Lord supports the fainting mind
and sends the laboring conscience peace.
God helps the stranger in distress,
the widow and the fatherless,
and grants the prisoner sweet release.

I'll praise my God who lends me breath;
and when my voice is lost in death,
praise shall employ my nobler powers.
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
while life, and thought, and being last,
or immortality endures.

Prayers

Sharing of Joys & Concerns

Morning Prayer

(adapted from Bread for the Journey, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

Amazing God, you have shaped the world in wonder and mystery. With thanks we contemplate the good earth you have created and the joys of the senses. With awe we contemplate the unseen world, with all its divine realities. You have created us so that we live as citizens of worlds seen and unseen. Help us, your creatures, to live so that your Spirit may become visible in our actions and relationships; through the grace of Jesus Christ, who shared our earthly life. Amen.

Silent Prayers

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kin-dom* come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive
those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Scripture Reading

Ephesians 5:15-20

Now Thank We All Our God

Catherine Winkworth (1858) Martin Rinkart (1636)

Reprinted with permission under CCLI License No. 3175826. All rights reserved.

Now thank we all our God, with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done, in whom this world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us still in grace, and guide us when perplexed;
and free us from all ills, in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God the Maker now be given;
the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven;
the one eternal God, whom earth and heaven adore;
for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Prayer of Dedication

Accept our offerings of self and substance to accomplish what we cannot do by ourselves.
Link us with one another in faith so that we may be a powerful influence for the good you want to accomplish through us. May all our gifts and our time be devoted to your will.
*Amen.
