

MINNEHAHA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A Reconciling Congregation
WE SEEK, WE SERVE, WE CELEBRATE

September 19, 2021

Welcome Friends!

We welcome you to worship wherever you may be in your faith's journey. We strive to live in the way of Jesus Christ, sharing God's love on a daily basis regardless of race, sexual orientation or faith history.

We livestream our worship services, and you may end up in view of the camera at any point in the service.

We ask you to refrain from playing on the playground during worship; you are welcome to use it after worship (as long as you are small enough to fit on the equipment!)

Greeting

Call to Worship

(adapted from Flames of the Spirit, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

Leader: And God created the heavens and the earth.

People: And gave them to us to use and enjoy.

Leader: And God breathed life into each of us, and set us upon the earth.

People: And God sent Jesus Christ to save us from the eternity of death.

Leader: Everything that fills our souls with gladness and light is a gift from our Creator.

People: We have been entrusted with unfathomable riches. For all this our God is to be praised. Let us worship God together!

The Faith We Sing #2004

Praise the Source of Faith and Learning

© 1987 Thomas H. Troeger, Richard H. Prichard; Oxford University Press

Praise the source of faith and learning that has sparked and stoked the mind with a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray.

God of wisdom we acknowledge that our science and our art and the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound where your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets taught.
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed lest we justify some terror with an antiquated creed.

As two currents in a river fight each other's undertow,
till converging they deliver one coherent steady flow, blend, O God, our faith and learning till they carve a single course, till they join as one, returning praise and thanks to you, their Source.

Sharing of Joys & Concerns

Morning Prayer

(adapted from Flames of the Spirit, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

Caring and compassionate Creator, we enter this place set apart for your worship, knowing that we have failed to see you in other places. We have ignored your beauty around us, in earth and sky, in plants and creatures, in the people who surround us. We have chosen to live more by our fears than by our faith, to be weighed down by what we do not have, rather than rejoicing in your gifts to us. In these moments together, draw us so close that we cannot help but know every day that you are with us, wherever we go. Enlarge our capacity to care, so we may see you in all whom we meet. Amen.

Silent Prayers

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kin-dom^{*} come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive
those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

^{*}Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Where Charity and Love Prevail #549

The United Methodist Hymnal #549

Tune: Alexander R. Reinagle (1836) Text: 9th cent. Latin tr. by Omer Westendorf (1961)

Where charity and love prevail, there God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ's love, by love are we thus bound.

With grateful joy and holy fear God's charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and strength now love Christ in return.

Forgive we now each other's faults as we our faults confess;
And let us love each other well in Christian holiness.

Let strife among us be unknown, let all contention cease;
Be Christ the glory that we seek, be ours his holy peace.

Let us recall that in our midst dwells God's begotten Son;
As members of his body joined, we are in him made one.

Love can exclude no race or creed if honored be God's name,
Our common love embraces all whose Maker is the same.

Prayer of Dedication

We offer our joy and thanksgiving, for you, O God, have blessed us in mercy and wisdom, opening us to reason, gentleness, and purposeful service. May our work for you bear good fruits, and these offerings help to accomplish the tasks for which you have called us.

Amen.

Worship in September: Worship in September will look a lot like it does now! We will continue with one worship service, outside, at 10:00. If it is raining, then we will move inside to the sanctuary and ask that you wear a mask. Our goal is to return to 2 worship services in October.

Masks required inside: Everyone is required to wear masks in our common areas in the building (this includes the sanctuary, narthex, fellowship hall, kitchen, bathrooms, etc.). Small groups that are meeting behind closed doors may still choose to make masks optional for the duration of their gathering.

We are delighted you are here! And, to minimize the handing around of things, we invite you to "sign the welcome pad" electronically. If you point your camera phone at the QR code below, it will take you to a google form where you can enter your information. If you don't have a camera phone, there are sign in sheets at the tables where you found bulletins.

For our offering, there are buckets for your cash or check offerings on the tables where you picked up your bulletin. You can also give electronically with the Give Plus app, through the PayPal account online, or by using this QR Code (which takes you to our PayPal account).
