Worship in September

September begins with two one-service Sundays, and it also kicks off our new series for the fall – Mythbusters. Christians say lots of things, like “there’s a reason for everything,” and “God doesn’t give us anything more than we can handle,” and “God helps those who help themselves” that don’t reflect what we really believe about God. We’ll be looking at a variety of these popular sayings, finding better ways to express what we mean.

Children's Ministries

In August, besides celebrating (or mourning) the end of summer, we had the chance to observe a solar eclipse. Different locations and circumstances (ah, cloudy Minneapolis) dictated just how much of the eclipse we were able to see. Darkness covered the light. It wasn't safe to look at. It wasn't in our control. And, we watched. I had the pleasure of observing it with my children and my parents. My father tried to get the grandchildren to join him in a dance to encourage the sun to return. They looked at him like he was crazy, and promptly jumped back into the pool. There was no doubt in their mind, even as they watched the sun disappear in the middle of the day, that the light would return.

We all have different levels of comfort with darkness. We all have different levels of trust in the light. Sometimes, it doesn't feel safe to have our children observe this struggle between darkness and light. Mostly, it feels like we have no control. And, quite often, it seems as if our efforts to control the light are futile and we may as well just jump in the lake. For the eclipse, we listened to NASA scientists explain all that was happening, and we trusted in their wisdom and understanding, learned a bit about this amazing universe of ours, and trusted that the moon wouldn't forever blot out the light of the sun. As Christians, seeking peace and love in this world of ours, we learn that by working together we are the peacemakers, the light bringers. When we see darkness and hate in this world, we know that LOVE is stronger, and that we can bring light into the world.

"...and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God." - Micah 6:8

This year in Children & Family Ministries, our theme is Peace Like a River. We'll be looking at all the different ways we experience peace (spiritual, emotional, and physical), as well as exploring how we might be the peacemakers in the world. We hope you will join us in this journey, and encourage you to share with us ideas on how we might better help your family find light and hope in the midst of darkness.

We don't need any pinhole projectors, colanders, or special glasses to participate. Simply join us - for Rally Day, for Sunday School, for worship, for Playgroup - for wherever it might be that you feel you can find peace and/or can work to bring peace. The darkness isn't more powerful

- while we may not always have control - we know this with certainty. Just as certainly, we know that we are called to be the peacemakers.

With hope for our children,
Jenia Strom

Family Ministries*

Highlights from the August 8 Church Council Meeting

We're almost finished with Brian McLaren's WE MAKE THE ROAD BY WALKING. (Our last chapter runs through September 2.) Chapter 52 ends: "Do not fear,' the Spirit whispers. 'All shall be well.' That is why we walk this road, from the known into the unknown, deeper into mystery, deeper into light, deeper into love, deeper into joy."

TREASURER'S REPORT: Contributions have been strong through the summer so far. A key reason is that 49% of the congregation is giving through automatic withdrawal payments. We are current with all bills, mortgage payments, apportionment payments and inter-fund loan payments through July 31, 2017. And we've added 10 new giving units in 2017. (Dennis Feller, Treasurer)

BLUE ENVELOPE CAMPAIGN: A few of the blue numbered envelopes to support a balanced budget are still available. (We've already raised more than $7,200!) If you took an envelope, place your donation inside and drop it into the offering plate. Thank you for supporting Minnehaha United Methodist Church. (Sue Claude, Finance)

additional photo date, so stay alert for that. If you have a photo you'd like to use, email it to Dean Ammerman: dean@kabloona.com. We're trying to include everyone in our Minnehaha church family. (Dean Ammerman, Church Council)

NEW MEMORIALS PROCESS: The Church Council approved a new process developed by the Memorials Committee, which outlines the memorials process, including family liaisons, planning, communication, committee "wish lists," reports and the responsibility of the Treasurer. (Bev Kennedy, Memorials Chair)

LOTS GOING ON WITH YOUR BOARD OF TRUSTEES: The Board of Trustees (and particularly Kim Kanuit and Gene Thompson) have been busy over the last two months. The playground was dug out and replaced, two new water fountains were installed (with bottle-filling capabilities!), a new money-saving copier was selected (and negotiated), the carpets were cleaned, a Monarch butterfly garden was planted in the boulevard on 50th Street, another "Will Party" will happen in October and more. (Kim Kanuit, Trustees Chair)

FOOD SHELF SERVES HUNDREDS EACH MONTH: More than 500 clients use the Minnehaha Food Shelf every month. On average, greater than 30,000 pounds of food are given out monthly, which includes the numbers from MinneHarvest, our church's own food mission. (Judy Durfey, Food Shelf)

SUMMER PROGRAMMING FOR KIDS A SUCCESS: This year 50 children and 23 volunteers attended Minnehaha's own Vacation Bible School. (Our biggest year yet.) And at our Music & Drama Camp (run by Maureen Trepp), 25 children and youth worked to put on the Boyton-based musical "When Pigs Fly." Also, 11

Ladies of Minnehaha UMC or all you UMW members: Welcome to our fall schedule of events. Kicking off the year is our annual September General meeting and Potluck. Bring something to share and join us in the Fellowship Hall at 5:45 followed by a program alerting us on how to keep ourselves and our community safe when visiting our church, a training led by Jenia Strom and attended also by our Sunday School teachers, Everyone is encouraged to partake in the potluck before the training.

A new daytime Circle is forming and will begin to meet in October. Our Minnehaha and Nokomis Circles have become one and will be meeting at Nokomis Square in the Community Room at 9:30 a.m. on the second Wednesday of the month. Any woman of the church is encouraged to join, so go, see what's up. Bring a friend, if you wish. We also have a great, large Susanna Circle that meets in the evening and is led by Jenia Strom; rumor has it this group has become so large, they may become two evening Circles. Put the kids to bed, have someone else do the dishes and come to Circle: a great chance to share thoughts, ideas, crab or praise a little and make life long friends. Our fourth Circle, Wenonah continues to be called on to serve our congregation through preparing funeral receptions, setting tables for events, and participating in the November Bazaar.

Please begin to get ready for our annual Bazaar on Nov. 11. You are encouraged to get a table and sell items you have made or collected along with assisting the week of the bazaar. Check out our new flyer in this edition of the newsletter.

Training for Everyone

Everyone is essential to the life of a church. You might chair a committee, or be on a committee. Maybe you help teach Sunday School. Or you volunteer for various events. You pick up garbage you see on the floor and put it in the trash. You sing hymns in worship, have conversations with friends new and old. This training is for you! There will be three sessions over the course of the fall:

- Sunday, Sept. 17, 1:00-3:00 –
We'll look at the demographics of our neighborhood and our church.
- Sunday, Oct. 22, 1:00-3:00 –
We say "All Are Welcome!" but how do we actually do that?
- Sunday, Nov. 19, 1:00-3:00 – How to be a true neighbor in our community.

Inkjet Cartridges

"I attempted to deliver ink jet cartridges to the Wildlife Hospital on Dale Street in Roseville yesterday. They do not take them. They said I'd been given incorrect information. I am so disappointed. There was no other recommendation for them so...I guess we'll just stop saving them and take advantage of any offers from the businesses that sell them. I'm so sorry that the Raptor Center quit the program. It felt so good to know that we were helping with the care of those wonderful creatures.

I want to thank everyone who has participated in this effort. We've done it several years and we can, at least, feel good about that.

Continue to care for our environment! - Wanda Driver

Heart of Christianity Study

"What is the heart of Christianity? What does it mean to be a Christian today?" Marcus Borg opens his book with these questions, adding just a few sentences later, "We live in a time of conflict and change in the church." Do we ever! Even though Borg wrote his book over 10 years ago, what he writes is still relevant for a church that continues to experience conflict and change. People struggle with beliefs they learned in childhood, and people struggle with how Christianity is defined by others. Borg wrote this book for all of us who are seeking an emerging way of seeing Christianity, and for those of us for whom an earlier vision of Christianity no longer works. We will be reading this book together, one chapter at a time, and discussing its insights on Monday nights from 6:30-8:00 p.m. The class starts on Sept. 11 and will finish on Nov. 20. You will need to have read chapter 1 before the first class.

Monthly Communion at Nokomis Sq.

On the second Thursday of the month at 1:00 p.m., there is a brief communion service at Nokomis Square preceded by a discussion of a current, relevant topic. Anyone is welcome to come. In September we will be gathering on September 14.

What Do United Methodists Believe?

Although theology in the United Methodist Church is not a rigid thing, there are particular beliefs that define who we are. If you'd like to find out more about what United Methodists believe about concepts like heaven, hell, grace, baptism, etc., come on Thursday mornings from 10:00-11:30 a.m. The class starts on Sept. 14 and runs through Oct. 19. We'll be meeting up in room 310.

Minnehaha Children & Family Ministries

How do we find peace in the midst of the craziness of life?
How do we bring peace to our communities – local and global?
How do we teach our children to be peacemakers?

Sunday, 10th Sept.: Rally Day, we'll celebrate the start of our program year
Saturday, 30th September: Minnehaha Hikes - a short late afternoon hike followed by fellowship time; more info coming soon
Saturday, 7th October: Child Care Night - from 5-8pm, Child Care will be available at Minnehaha, while parents get to socialize!
Friday, 27th October: Halloween Party at Minnehaha
Thursdays: Minnehaha Playgroup at 9:00am

Each Sunday throughout the program year, we have our Faith Formation Hour in between worship services. At 10:15 in the education wing, Sunday School classes (with music embedded) are held by age

MINNEHAHA PLAYGROUP SETS RECORD: Tanya Ketcham's Thursday morning playgroup had another successful summer visiting a wide range of parks throughout the Metro area. The number of children and their caregivers who attend this weekly get-together is growing. There are currently 119 members on the Facebook page. (FYI: Children 5 years old and under, and their caregivers, spend Thursday mornings from 9:00 – 11:00 a.m. playing, talking, exploring, supporting each other and learning together.) It's a wildly successful program hosted by Minnehaha UMC. (Jenia Strom, Children's Ministries)

NEXT MEETING IS SEPTEMBER 12: The next Church Council meeting will be September 12 at 6:30 p.m. Everyone in the church is invited to attend. Complete minutes of the meeting are available on request. (Dean Ammerman, Church Council)

“Will Party” and “Funeral Planning” on Thursday, October 19

On Thursday, October 19, starting at 5:45 pm with a light supper, Minnehaha UMC will host a “Will Party” and “Funeral Planning” event. All are invited to attend, young and old.

This “Will Party” portion will provide an opportunity for those who wish to start or revise a will to meet with an attorney. Steve Otto of Otto Law (www.ottoesq.com), a Twin Cities law firm focusing on estate planning/probate administration and business law, will be at the meeting to talk about wills, answer your questions, and to meet one-on-one to discuss your estate planning needs. (There is no charge for this initial consultation.) If you would like to have a will drawn up or do other estate planning, you can set up a follow-up meeting.

Following Steve Otto, Becky will walk us through the Funeral Planning materials the church uses. The forms are available on our website (see the tab under “building use” on the top), but sometimes it’s helpful to walk through them in person. Whether you are jotting down notes you want to leave for your own service, or thinking about the questions you might need to ask a family member to help plan their service, this is a helpful piece of planning.

Childcare will also be provided upon request. RSVP’s not necessary but appreciated so we know about how many will be attending. Questions regarding this event and RSVP’s may be directed to David Graham, Kim Kanuit, or Becky Sechrist.

One Service Sundays

We will be having one service on two upcoming Sundays:

September 3 – one service inside at 10:00. Labor Day Weekend.

September 10 – one service outside at 10:00 for our program year kick-off. There will be food for sale, a bike parade, music, and other fun events following the service.

Repetitive Rituals

I love to experience new things, visit new places, try new foods. But there are plenty of things that, having done them once, I want to do them again and again. I am currently trying to find the space in my calendar to do 2 of my late summer favorites – pick blueberries and go to the State Fair. As it works out, these events will end up falling within just a few days of each other.

The place we pick blueberries is over an hour and a half away. It seems like a long drive just to get some blueberries, but the owners are great, the drive is beautiful, and they have enough varieties of blueberries that picking can begin in early July and go through Labor Day weekend. I've been once already, but I want (need?) more blueberries to store up in my freezer for my yogurt and granola the rest of the year, not to mention baking. And the late-season blueberries are amazing! They plant a variety call Elliotts, and the berries are large, and more savory than sweet. I do like the earlier varieties as well (really, there is no blueberry I dislike), but I always have to go back for the Elliotts. They have a complex flavor, and once I've had them on my tongue, I get so used to the flavor that I can't just pop a handful of the other kind in my mouth without a small amount of disappointment.

Which is so unlike my State Fair adventure! The State Fair has animals galore, all of which I love to visit, and is great people-watching. I even look at the displays in the Creative Arts and Fine Arts buildings. But, truth be told, I go for the food. I don't go for subtle, complex flavors like my blueberry. I get corn dogs and cheese curds and whatever else I can remember from what was great last year and then a whole list of things that looked interesting this year. It's an assault on my tastebuds, but a welcomed one. I can't eat like this all the time, so combining it with a lot of walking seems the most sensible plan.

I'm also hoping to try some new things this fall – a new miniature golf course with our niece and her husband when they come to town. A new restaurant with our sister-in-law. A visit to the new Sculpture Garden. And all of this is much like my spiritual life. I like to read new books, hear new prayers, even sing new hymns (really, I do like new hymns!). But in with the new is not always out with the old. Sometimes the routine of the same prayer at the same time each day is a comfort. Bible stories, even ones I've heard a hundred times, can surprise me with a new perspective. And hearing God's voice in predictable ways is often a welcome relief.

Fall is a time of change for many of us – routines change just as the weather changes. We say goodbye to summer and hello to fall just as school starts back up, vacation plans settle down, and the leaves begin to turn color. Even as you welcome the new, don't forget the routine. Make sure that you rely on God in ways that are familiar while welcoming new ways of seeing and experiencing God's presence in the world and in your life.

In joy,

Becky
