Minnehaha Children, Youth, and Family Ministries

We've had a full and good start to the 2019 year - from adventures away (bouldering with the youth, winter retreat with all ages), to celebrating and connection at home (infant recognition, young family dinner, and the return of Minnehaha Wednesday Nights). We've reflected on what a means to be a good neighbor, and honed in on the words of our peace prayer using American Sign Language. And, as we plan the rest of the year, we continue to think about this balance. How do we grow connections within our community, how do we help our children to grow while also looking beyond our comfort, beyond our walls to form connections and work for peace in the larger world?

We'll work on this as we focus this winter on sexuality education: with an event for third through eighth graders at the end of February, and a parent night for parents of young children in March. We'll work on this as we welcome the Daud family to share about their trip to Somalia, and begin to work out the details of our Urban Bound Youth Mission experience. We'll work on this as we gather for Sunday School and Wednesday Night programming, as we worship, as we visit. We're grateful you are a part of this community, of this work, and look forward to seeking, serving, and celebrating together.

UMW is sponsoring our Annual All Church Musical presented by the Minnehaha Players on Feb. 9 at 2:00 and 7:00 and Feb. 10 at 2:00. "Haphazardly Ever After" is a huge musical during which an unhappy King and Queen manage to make magical mistakes while trying to become empty nesters. Come and enjoy! You'll recognize dozens of folks you know!

Watch for our annual UMW Sunday on Feb. 24. We happily host one service every year during which we recognize the service to our community and church of individuals with a UMW Service Award. Geri Cook will be delivering our message with a sermon titled "The School to Prison Pipeline" as we also emphasize the four major focus areas of our National UMW organizations.

March 6 is the next date for serving dinner at Simpson Housing Services. It doesn't take long and gives you a view of how someone is helping the homeless of Mpls. UMW funds provide the food; you can help make the meal on the afternoon of March 6 and serve it that evening. Let Maureen Trepp know you are interested at 612-724-7620.

What Pronoun Do I Use?

Feb. 17 10:15 Faith Forum. What Pronoun Do I Use? As we learn more about gender identity and gender fluidity, the pronouns and terms we use to refer to each other get more complex. Zane Timmesch-Gill will lead us in a conversation on when to use he, she, they, and others.

Special Session

The United Methodist Church makes its decisions globally, and with an equal number of lay people and clergy (representative of our population around the world) voting on pieces of legislation.

We have been at an impasse regarding issues related to LGBT for decades, with prohibitive rules that are broken regularly by clergy all over the United States, with varying consequences. After our last General Conference, where we gather to vote on these things, the voting body agreed to a special commission who would make some recommendations, and a special session to vote on those suggestions. That special session is coming up at the end of February. Between Feb. 23 and Feb. 26, almost 900 delegates will gather in St. Louis, MO and debate a total of 78 petitions related to our stance on sexuality. Pastor Becky will be attending this special session as an observer, and she will address what might happen in her sermon on Feb. 17 before she leaves, and will address what did happen in her sermon on March 3 when she is back. Anticipate that there will probably also be other educational forums after the special session has ended and the dust has settled. No matter how the votes go, our denomination will be changed. Some people and congregations will leave, and some will stay. So, please pray for all the delegates and all the presiders over the sessions that we might be as faithful as we can to where the Spirit is leading our denomination.

First Friday Films

Do you find yourself shouting advice to characters during a movie? Nudging your neighbor with an elbow during critical scenes? Wishing you had someone to talk to about the movie you just watched? Then you are in luck! Come to the church on the first Friday of the month at 7:00 and settle in to watch a movie with fellow Minnehaha-ians. Bring your own beverage and snacks, and feel free to bring a friend as well. After the credits roll, you'll have an opportunity to share your "aha" moments, the things you liked or disliked, or anything else the movie prompted in you.

On Feb. 1 (7:00 in room 210) we'll be watching Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood; a documentary about Mr. Fred Rogers, how he created his show, and the impact it had on all of us.

Monthly Communion at Nokomis Square

A brief service of communion is offered at Nokomis Square on the second Thursday of this month. All are welcome to join us on February 14 at 1:00 p.m.

SUNDAY FEBRUARY 3RD

Ordinary Time

The Star Tribune has been running an occasional series on the adventures of Angus. Angus is a rescue dog, and his family has found him to be a bit trying, and very different to train than their other dogs. They occasionally chronicle their adventures as he goes from puppy to dog. The latest article featured a camera they got for Christmas which would allow them to see what their dogs were doing while they were gone during the day. They expected to find, as other owners had found, that their dogs (well, at least Angus) were dancing on the dining room table, or rearranging the furniture, or leading some kind of secret life. So far, they've been very disappointed to discover that mostly, the dogs sleep all day. Ordinary.

I think the church faces those same kinds of disappointments sometime. Especially right now. We have the wonderful anticipation of Advent, leading up to Christmas, and now we are just waiting for that reflective season of Lent, which will lead us to Easter. Since Easter is so late this year, we get two months (January and February) of the liturgical season of Epiphany. Once we get beyond Epiphany itself on January 6, this is really just another round of ordinary time until Ash Wednesday comes on March 6.

So I want to make the case for ordinary time. Because ordinary time is where things really happen. Ok, so the birth of Jesus is pretty important, with its promises of how God is with us. And the message of Easter, where God triumphs over all the awful things in the world and we have the promise that there is more than just the individual lives we live on earth is significant in our faith. But, we live a lot of our lives between birth and death. And so did Jesus. One of the biggest complaints about the Apostles' Creed is that it skips over all that important stuff. We go from "born of the virgin Mary" to "suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried," and miss all the things that Jesus said and did. That's what ordinary time is for. We focus on birth for Advent and Christmas, and we focus on death for Lent and Easter, but in ordinary time we focus on how to live our lives. We utilize the promises from Christmas and Easter, but we learn our history, we hear from other great teachers and prophets. We hear the stories of people who got it right and people who got it wrong. We follow the lives of people who both got it right and got it wrong. We hear the things Jesus said to crowds and to his disciples. We struggle with whether Jesus actually performed miracles, and we ponder parables. Ordinary time is actually pretty exciting.

So, even as my own puppy has finally tired from his morning antics of playing tug with his older sister and trying to paw the cat out of his comfy bed in front of the heat vent and settled down to sleep on the rug in my office, I am living in ordinary time. I am living my life as faithfully as I can, paying attention to God as best I can, and going about the ordinary, but amazingly miraculous, living of my life. I invite you to do the same.

In Joy,
Becky
