Sharing Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer

(adapted from Touch Holiness, ed. Ruth C. Duck & Maren C. Tirabassi)

God of life and all living, we give you thanks at this beginning of November for the chilly, windy beauty of late-autumn days. We give you thanks for leaf-lost trees, for wet streets, for geese and birds vanishing south, for squirrels finishing their acorn gathering, for early dark and for the sober brown and gray of earth and sky and water. We thank you for the warmth we find in family, friends, and church that we experience now and in the winter months of our lives. We thank you for the harvest of good words we find in the Good News, the ingathering of all your people through God's grace, and we thank you for all the communities that sustain us and for all the people who reflect your love and action in their lives.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kin-dom[✱] come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

[✱]Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Hymn of Promise

In the bulb there is a flower;
in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise:
butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter
there's a spring that waits to be,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

There's a song in every silence,
seeking word and melody;
there's a dawn in every darkness
bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future;
what it holds, a mystery,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning;
in our time, infinity;
in our doubt there is believing;
in our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection;
at the last, a victory,
unrevealed until its season,
something God alone can see.

Charge Conference is the official word we use for an all-church meeting that takes places during Church Council. The reason for our charge conference on Nov. 10 will be the setting of salary for Becky Sechrist. We do this before the formal budget is adopted because the denomination requires that all salaries be set by December 1 so that the numbers can be processed by the pensions people. If our budgeting process prompts a change in salary, then we can make a correction and vote on it the same time we vote on the budget, sending in amended paperwork at that time. Everyone is always welcome to attend a Church Council meeting, and anyone who is a member can vote at the charge conference.

Candlelighting Videos Needed! We probably can't pass the candle light on Christmas Eve this year, but that doesn't mean we can't do it digitally! We are looking for your videos – pick up a candle from the church (they are outside the front doors in a labeled container). Set your camera on landscape mode (sideways), and start with yourself holding the candle, unlit, in front of you. Take the unlit candle in your left hand and move it to the left, out of sight of the camera. Have someone light it, then move the candle back into the screen and pass it to your right, off screen again. We'll collect these videos and stitch them together so that we are able to pass the candlelight to one another on Christmas Eve. Here is the link for the google drive where we are collecting the videos: <https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1XlxmWZEiKM-SwdbN9sYLLMMUlaXzXep?usp=sharing>

If you have any trouble, you can just email your video to becky@minnehaha.org and she'll upload it for you.

In order to have the time to put the video together, please upload your recordings by the end of November.
