Sharing Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer

(adapted from Flames of the Spirit, by Ruth C. Duck)

O God, you have empowered people near and far, and are known to generations past and to come. We pray that you would be known among us, and that you would bestow gifts on us that allow us to carry out your mission in our homes and neighborhoods and world, extended your peace, mercy, and grace to all.

Amen.

Silent Prayers

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kin-dom[✠] come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

[✠] Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore

Lord, you have come to the lakeshore
looking neither for wealthy nor wise ones.
You only asked me to follow humbly.

Refrain:

O Lord, with your eyes you have searched me,
and while smiling, have spoken my name.
Now my boat's left on the shoreline behind me;
by your side I will seek other seas.

You know so well my possessions;
my boat carries no gold and no weapons;
You will find there my nets and labor.

You need my hands, full of caring,
through my labors to give others rest,
and constant love that keeps on loving.

You, who have fished other oceans
ever longed-for by souls who are waiting,
my loving friend, as thus you call me.
