Morning Prayer

(adapted from Bread for the Journey, ed. Ruth C. Duck)

Redeemer God, we thank you for the newness of life you offer us in Jesus Christ. Through your Spirit, may we experience your healing presence in our bodies and in our souls. Ease our minds, fill our hearts with love, and cast out our fear. We pray for the wholeness of your Spirit. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

inclusive

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kin-dom✠ come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

✠ Kin-dom represents a hope for God's realm where we are all in community with one another.

Refrain:

Healer of our every ill,
light of each tomorrow,
give us peace beyond our fear,
and hope beyond our sorrow.

You who know our fears and sadness,
grace us with your peace and gladness;
Spirit of all comfort, fill our hearts. [Refrain]

In the pain and joy beholding
how your grace is still unfolding, give us all your vision, God of love. [Refrain]

Give us strength to love each other,
every sister, every brother;
Spirit of all kindness, be our guide. [Refrain]

You who know each thought and feeling,
teach us all your way of healing;
Spirit of compassion, fill each heart. [Refrain]

O gather up the brokenness, bring it to me now
The fragrance of those promises you never dared to vow
The splinters that you carried, the cross you left behind
Come healing of the body, Come healing of the mind
O let the heavens hear it— the penitential hymn
Come healing of the spirit, Come healing of the limb

Behold the gates of mercy in arbitrary space
And none of us deserving of cruelty or the grace
O solitude of longing where love has been confined
Come healing of the body, Come healing of the mind
O see the darkness yielding that tore the light apart
Come healing of the reason, Come healing of the heart

O troubledness concealing an undivided love
The heart beneath is teaching to the broken heart above
And let the heavens falter let the earth proclaim
Come healing of the altar, Come healing of the name

O longing of the branches to lift the little bud
O longing of the arteries to purify the blood
O let the heavens hear it—the penitential hymn
Come healing of the spirit, Come healing of the limb.
