Tenebrae

A Tenebrae service gets its name from the Latin, meaning “shadows.” In a Tenebrae service, the readings tell the story of the last day in Jesus’ life. They are read without introduction or conclusion, and after each reading a candle is extinguished. We invited each of our readers this year to record themselves reading their reading and extinguishing a candle in their own home. In this liturgical year, the focus is on the gospel of Mark, so the readings are all taken from that gospel. You are invited to sing along with the musicians on our hymns, and in place of the normal times of silence, we are providing some quiet background music.

The last pillar candle represents Jesus, and although the candle is removed at the end of the service, the light is never extinguished. The loud noise at the end represents the death of Jesus. After the candle has been removed and you hear a loud noise, the service will end. You are invited to remain in silence in your own worship space as long as you need.

What Wondrous Love Is This?

The United Methodist Hymnal

USA folk hymn; harm Paul J. Christiansen 1955 © Augsburg Publishing House

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul,
what wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss to bear the dreadful curse for my soul, for my soul, to bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul,
what wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this, that caused the Lord of life to lay aside his crown for my soul, for my soul, to lay aside his crown for my soul.

To God and to the Lamb, I will sing, I will sing,
to God and to the Lamb, I will sing;
to God and to the Lamb who is the great I AM,
while millions join the theme I will sing, I will sing;
while millions join the theme I will sing.

And when from death I’m free, I’ll sing on, I’ll sing on,
and when from death I’m free, I’ll sing on;
and when from death I’m free, I’ll sing and joyful be,
and through eternity I’ll sing on, I’ll sing on,
And through eternity I’ll sing on.

Oh, how he loves you and me, Oh how he loves you and me.
He gave his life, what more could he give?
Oh, how he loves you; Oh, how he loves me;
Oh, how he loves you and me.

Jesus to Calvary did go, his love for sinners to show.
What he did there brought hope from despair.
Oh, how he loves you; Oh, how he loves me;
Oh, how he loves you and me.

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

The United Methodist Hymnal

Hans L. Hassel, 1601; harm. J.S. Back 1729

Reprinted with permission under CCLI License No. 3175826. All rights reserved.

O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down,
now scornfully surrounded with thorns, thine only crown:
how pale thou art with anguish, with sore abuse and scorn!
How does that visage languish which once was bright as morn!

What thou, my Lord, hast suffered was all for sinners' gain;
mine, mine was the transgression, but thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall, my Savior! 'Tis I deserve thy place;
look on me with thy favor, vouchsafe to me thy grace.

What language shall I borrow to thank thee, dearest friend,
for this thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?
O make me thine forever; and should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never outlive my love for thee.

We Sang Our Glad Hosannas

The Faith We Sing

Mary Nelson Keithahn 1998 © Abingdon Press

Reprinted with permission under CCLI License No. 3175826. All rights reserved.

We sang our glad Hosannas, and waved our branches high,
but some were silent, frowning, as Jesus rode on by.
They sought a royal Savior but did not understand a king could rule by loving, instead of by command.

We heard an angry Jesus in Temple courts declare,
"Be gone, you moneychangers! This is a house of prayer."
Though many came for healing and stayed to hear his word, still others, hostile, plotted and thus his death assured.

We served him at the table with wine, unleavened bread.
"The one who will betray me now eats with me," he said.
His friends would not believe him, but one by one that night,
as soldiers came to take him, they scurried out of sight.

We saw a suffering Jesus alone, without a friend,
and heard the voices shouting abuse until the end.
We wept as we stood watching Love's light grow dim and die, and cried, "Why did this happen? God, tell us, tell us why!"

We buried him, not knowing that on the third day morn
a risen Christ would greet us and hope would be reborn.
Though evil had extinguished the life that burned so bright, the love of God would triumph like dawn that ends the night.

Ah, Holy Jesus

The United Methodist Hymnal

Johann Heermann, 1630, trans. Robert S. Bridges, 1899; Johann Crüger, 1640
Reprinted with permission under CCLI License No. 3175826. All rights reserved.

Ah, holy Jesus, how hast thou offended, that we to judge thee have in hate pretended?
By foes derided, by thine own rejected,
O most afflicted!

Who was the guilty? Who brought this upon thee?
Alas, my treason, Jesus, hath undone thee!
'Twas I, Lord Jesus, I it was denied thee;
I crucified thee.

Lo, the Good Shepherd for the sheep is offered;
the slave hath sinned, and the Son hath suffered.
For our atonement, while we nothing heeded,
God interceded.

For me, kind Jesus, was thy incarnation,
thy mortal sorrow, and thy life's oblation;
thy death of anguish and thy bitter passion,
for my salvation.

Therefore, kind Jesus, since I cannot pay thee,
I do adore thee, and will ever pray thee,
think on thy pity and thy love unswerving,
not my deserving.

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

The United Methodist Hymnal

Isaac Watts 1707 © 1989 The United Methodist Publishing House

Reprinted with permission under CCLI License No. 3175826. All rights reserved.

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of Glory died, my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ, my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were an offering far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

Were you there when they crucified my Lord? (were you there)

Were you there when they crucified my Lord? (were you there)

Oh! sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when they crucified my Lord? (were you there)

Were you there when they nailed him to the tree? . . .

Were you there when they pierced him in the side? . . .

Were you there when the sun refused to shine? . . .

Were you there when they laid him in the tomb? . . .
