

Minnehaha United Methodist Church Service Bulletin

This is Church | March 29, 2020

Greeting – Pastor Becky Sechrist

Children's Message – Jenia Strom

Centering Music – Anders Nelson

“Lord of All Hopefulness” (verses 1, 3 & 4)

Jan Struther (Irish Folk Melody)

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy:
Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace:
Be there at our homing, and give us, we pray,
your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm:
Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,
your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

Prayers – Pastor Becky Sechrist

Morning Prayer – adapted from “Touch Holiness,” ed. Ruth C. Duck & Maren C. Tirabassi

As we end another busy week in our lives, we come before you, O God, knowing that you are always ready to receive us, shortcomings and all. We take time out to consider how our lives might better reflect your broad view of life, your forgiving spirit, your wisdom, your creativity, your patience. Today we consider what it means to live abundantly, like Jesus did. You call us to inspiring, difficult, and sometimes frightening work to bring your realm into our midst. Give us the courage we need, and bring us to new life that the spirit of the resurrection might be magnified in each of us. Amen.

Silent Prayers – Anders Nelson

“Meditation”

Alan Bullard(1947)

New in Our Prayers This Week:

- Shirley Yeoman's niece who has tested positive for Covid-19 in NJ and is in home quarantine.
- Jenia Strom's aunt who was just diagnosed for stage 4 ovarian cancer and is starting cancer treatment.

Holding in Prayer:

- Transitional Care: Gary Claude (Sue Claude's father), Andrew Nordloef
- Receiving Treatment for Cancer: Scott Christianson (son-in-law of Mary Doelz), Joan Ellison, Kay Lintz (sister of Jan Hougen), Elaine Luzzi (sister of Peggy Anderson), Jordyn Meskan (niece of Elaine Chadwick), Susie Moore (aunt of Jenia Strom), Ray Ryan (brother of Peggy Anderson)
- Partnership Families: The Dauds & Omars

Lord's Prayer (inclusive)

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Passing of the Peace

Congregational Hymn #431 – “Let There Be Peace On Earth” (Sy Miller and Jill Jackson)

Let there be peace earth, and let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be
With God our creator, children all are we Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me; let this be the moment now.
With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

Offering of Gifts and Tithes

Please contribute to:

- Minnehaha UMC
- Food Shelf
- MinneHarvest
- UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief)
- Livestreaming

You can contribute by sending a check in the mail, designating any special giving on the memo line, or electronically through our Give Plus app on your phone or on the website. Thank you for your generosity.

Offertory – The Children’s Choir (performed on February 23, 2020)
“Turning of the World”
Ruth Pelham (1982)

Let us sing this song for the TURNING of the world
That we may TURN as one
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our TURNING
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our TURNING

Let us sing this song for the HEALING of the world
That we may HEAL as one
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our HEALING
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our HEALING

Let us sing this song for the DREAMING of the world
That we may DREAM as one
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our DREAMING
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our DREAMING

Let us sing this song for the LOVING of the world
That we may LOVE as one
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our LOVING
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
With every voice, with every song
We will move this world along
And our lives will feel the echo of our LOVING
And our lives will feel the echo of our DREAMING
And our lives will feel the echo of our HEALING
And our lives will feel the echo of our TURNING

Scripture – Monica Regan
I Corinthians 15:58

Sermon – Becky Sechrist
“Spiritual Fitness: Working”

Traveling Music – The Methodicals
“In the Highways (I’ll Be Working Somewhere for My Lord)”
Maybelle Carter (1964)

In the highways, in the hedges
In the highways, in the hedges
In the highways, in the hedges
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord

I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord
I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord

If He calls me, I will answer
If He calls me, I will answer
If He calls me, I will answer
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord

I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord
I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord

In the highways, in the hedges
In the highways, in the hedges
In the highways, in the hedges
I’ll be somewhere workin’ for my Lord

Benediction – Becky Sechrist

Lyrics and music reprinted under CCLI/OneLicense.net #A-711192. All rights reserved.

Worship Personnel:

Rev. Becky Sechrist, Pastor; Jenia Strom, Program Director of Children, Youth, and Families; Alex Rack, Choir Director; Anders Nelson, Organist; Tim Siefkes and Josh Espinosa, Co-Leaders of Second Service Music. Monica Regan, Scripture Reader; Elsa Talcott, Worship Candle; Michael Talcott, Acolyting; Sue Claude, Children's Choir Video; Eric Strom, Children's Music Director; Dean Ammerman, Video Production; Pete Ketcham, Internet Coordinator.

Practices for Working

- Work with another person or several persons on a project. Teamwork speaks of the capacity of the human heart to depend on others and to share and to build a better world together. This is a particularly fruitful way of working because it allows for community to exist.
- Share the unpleasant tasks. Find ways to take turns with the less popular parts of a job. There may be people who have a high tolerance for certain unpleasant tasks. Express the gratitude of the entire team when someone willingly takes over such responsibility for a long time.
- Find something you love doing and do it. Work at something that gives you pleasure. Even if this is not the source of your full-time employment, decide that you owe it to yourself to be involved in some effort that is joyful.
- Volunteer. Not every valuable job needs to have a price tag attached. When a paycheck is absent, the gift of ourselves is more accurately just that – self-donation. The poor tend to make the greatest contributions to charity, and the richest give the least.
- Look for diversity in the workplace. Choose to work for a company or institution that goes out of its way to hire a mixed work force. Look for racial, religious, and cultural diversity. And do what you can to make all people feel at home. If a hearing-impaired worker spends her lunchtime eating alone or reading a book, consider proposing a course in ASL for everyone to encourage communication. Breaking down barriers is often effected best through simple but sincere person-to-person gestures.
- Teach children that all facets of a job matter and need to be done well. Kevin Walsh, a professor of education at the University of Alabama, says that what is wrong with America's schools is that children paint beautiful pictures but do not clean their paintbrushes. When a child is asked to take care of the class rabbit, he or she is delighted to do so, but avoids cleaning the cage. If children are equipped to exercise self-discipline, they will develop character and self-esteem. "The development of character is the backbone of the economic system," Professor Walsh says. "It is the fiber by which the work ethic develops."
- Treasure the Sabbath. It was made for rest and leisure. This is easy to forget with stores open round the clock. The Sabbath puts a brake on labor, profits, productivity, and competition, and opens the heart to a contemplative way of relating to work – and to everything else.
- Thank people who do work for you. The mail carrier, your children's teachers, the baggers at the grocer's, the pharmacist, the desk clerk, secretaries, baby sitters, barbers and hairdressers, etc. Think of creative ways to express gratitude rather than just giving money.
- Nurture the contemplative side of your work. Give yourself the time to reflect on what kind of person you've become because of the work you do. How does what you do and how you do it contribute to God's vision for the universe?

Adapted from Spiritual Fitness: Everyday Exercises for Body and Soul by Doris Donnelly.