Greeting – Pastor Becky Sechrist

Call to Worship – adapted from “Flames of the Spirit,” ed. Ruth C. Duck

Trembling, the women approached the tomb. The tomb: that mysterious place of meeting.
Death meeting life. Women meeting the risen Christ. Trembling.

Trembling, we approach the edge where death and life meet. Death, the unknown, meets life, new life. New life faces us with its possibilities and uncertainties. Trembling, we approach.

From a triumphant Palm Sunday to a dark, betrayed Friday, we have journeyed to Easter.
Wiser now, we know that joy and sorrow, life and death, are bound together. Passing through sorrow, through death, to life and joy, we have arrived at Easter.

The risen Jesus still bore the marks of the nails. Life knows death, joy knows sorrow. Yet it is life which triumphs over all, love which conquers all fears.

Congregational Hymn #145 – Anders Nelson

“Morning Has Broken”

Eleanor Farjeon (1931)

Morning has broken like the first morning;
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain’s new fall sunlit from heaven,
Like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning
Born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God’s re-creation of the new day!

Morning has broken like the first morning;
Blackbird has spoken like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sharing Joys and Concerns

Morning Prayer

God of birth, God of joy, God of life, we come to you as a people hungry for good news. Some days, we have been so dead to miracles that we have missed the world's rebirth. Some days, we have been so preoccupied with our own supplies that we have overlooked the joy and abundance you give us. Open our hearts, open our spirits, open our lives to the Life you offer. Help us to reach out to our neighbors when we cannot physically reach out. Help us to be community when we cannot gather together. In the midst of quarantine and distance and bad news, help us to find your Easter message of joy and life. Amen.

Lord's Prayer (inclusive)

Our Creator, God in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

“In a Locked Room”

Congregational Hymn #2115 – Anders Nelson

“Christ Has Risen”

John Bell and William Moore

Christ has risen while earth slumbers, Christ has risen where hope died,
As he said and as he promised, as we doubted and denied.
Let the moon embrace the blessing; let the sun sustain the cheer;
let the world confirm the rumor: Christ is risen, God is here!

Christ has risen for the people whom he died to love and save;
Christ has risen for the women bringing flowers to grace his grave. Christ has risen for disciples huddled in an upstairs room.
He whose word inspired creation can't be silenced by the tomb.

Christ has risen to companion former friends who fear the night,
Sensing loss and limitation where their faith had once burned bright.
They bemoan what is no longer, they expect no hopeful sign
Till Christ ends their conversation, breaking bread and sharing wine.

Christ has risen and forever lives to challenge and to change
All whose lives are messed or mangled, all who find religion strange.
Christ is risen, Christ is present making us what he has been –
Evidence of transformation in which God is known and seen.

Benediction – Becky Sechrist
